30-YEAR OLD TAWNY PORT

94 points “Harmonious and refined, lively and fresh, its ‘old Tawny’ flavors eventually come crashing onto its finish, but it always seems youthful and pure. ... This is very graceful.”

LATE BOTTLED VINTAGE 2013

92 points “It shows beautiful structure now, real but controlled tannins. ...This should develop more over the next 5-10 years and hold for another decade or more beyond that, without problem. This is another fine LBV from Ramos Pinto.”

QUINTA DE ERVAMOIRA VINTAGE 2009

92 points “A supremely ripe Port from Ramos-Pinto’s vineyard in the far east of the Douro. It is finely perfumed, with layered tannins upon structured plum skins and black cherry fruit. It’s in a fruity style, but the structure certainly promises aging.”

RUBY PORT non-vintage

Lively and intense, with strong, fruity aromas (primarily cherry, blackberry, plum and raspberry, with a hint of cinnamon). It has a rather voluminous attack because of its exuberance and amount of fruitiness.

The classic pairing with ruby port is blue cheese. Also goes great with chocolate desserts.

WHITE PORT non-vintage

With its delicate yet intense aromas, this is a wonderful aperitif.

Somewhat complex, it features a mixture of citrine aromas with a hint of honey and almond. It is dry with a flavor of fresh fruit.

Smoked salmon, sushi, olives, and charcuterie are just a few types of food you'll enjoy with this wine.
