PORTO

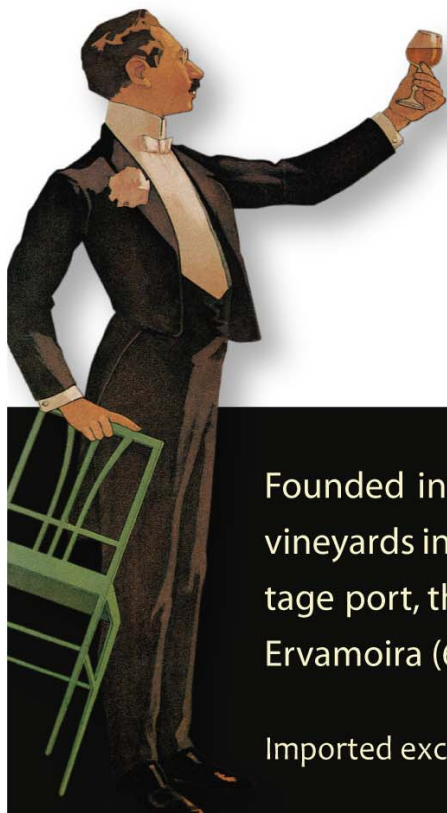

VINTAGE 2003

THE WALL STREET JOURNAL

Rating: Good / Very Good

"Interesting texture, with a dryness on the finish that's surprising and interesting - and makes it easy to have another sip. John said it reminded him of good chocolate - very satisfying."

- Dorothy J. Gaiter & John Brecher, December 12, 2009

Founded in 1880, Ramos-Pinto is a unique port producer owning extensive vineyards in the most favored sites of the Douro region. In the making of a vintage port, the finest wines of the Quintas are selected, Bom Retiro (40%) and Ervamoira (60%), to create a full-bodied, intensely fruity and complex wine.
