

2004

CHÂTEAU
HAUT-BEAUSÉJOUR

SAINT-ESTÈPHE
CRU BOURGEOIS

THE WALL STREET JOURNAL

May 10, 2007

Dorothy J. Gaiter
John Brecher

Informal, Inexpensive Bordeaux -
Smaller Châteaux Yield Big Bargains

"The 2004 wines are a buy. Time and again, we found them charming, with lovely noses of fruit, wood and cedar; layered tastes of dark fruit; balanced acids that make them food-friendly; and a dry, easy finish."

Château Haut-Beauséjour (St. Estèphe) 2004

Good/Very Good

"Deep black fruit, with a long finish that's exceptionally smooth. A bit of structure, but mostly just soft, easy drinking."

Imported exclusively by MAISONS MARQUES & DOMAINES
www.mmdusa.net

