points
HIGHLY RECOMMENDED
AWARDED "ONE OF THE MOST IMPRESSIVE WINES OF THE ISSUE."

"Extremely attractive aromas of blackberry, fresh mushroom and mahogany. Full-bodied, with lovely fruit, soft tannins and a long finish. Chewy, yet balanced and pretty. Builds on the palate. Big and juicy."
- James Suckling

"... very elegant in this vintage... Today the wine reveals just a glimpse of its potential but it should develop into a gem with time."
- Antonio Galloni

BARBARESCO DOCG 2004

92 WINE SPECTATOR
SEPTEMBER 30, 2008

HIGHEST SCORING BAROLO
OF THE ISSUE

"This is focused and very pretty, with lots of subtle aromas, from black cherry to freshly cut flowers. Full-bodied and powerful, with chewy tannins and a long, rich finish."
- James Suckling

"... the most distinguished Ornato yet... The tannins are fine but also beautifully balanced by the wine's massive fruit."
- Antonio Galloni

BARBARESCO "IL BRICCO" DOCG 2004

94 WINE SPECTATOR
SEPTEMBER 30, 2008
points

"Wonderfully floral and fruity on the nose. Full-bodied, with super-silky tannins and a long, long finish. Chewy yet polished. Plenty of ripe blackberry, light toasty oak and vanilla on the finish."
- James Suckling

"... bursts from the glass with tons of fruit and a generous, expansive personality buffered by firm, yet elegant tannins."
- Antonio Galloni

"Proprietor Pio Boffa has fashioned some of the finest wines of his career with his 2004 Barbarescos and Barolos. These 2004s are remarkably open even at this early stage." - Antonio Galloni, Wine Advocate - 10.08
