

DOMAINES OTT

Domaines Ott was founded in 1912 by Marcel Ott, an agricultural engineer from Alsace who dreamed of establishing a great wine estate near the Mediterranean. Marcel Ott moved to Cavalaire in 1896 and founded Château de Selle in 1912, followed by Clos Mireille in 1935 and Château Romassan in 1956. Domaines Ott was owned and managed by the descendants of Marcel Ott until 2004 when the Estates were purchased by Champagne Louis Roederer.

The story of the Ott star: At the turn of the 20th century, Marcel Ott wanted to patent his name and law required that he add a distinctive symbol; he chose the star.

LES DOMANIERES

APPELLATION: CÔTES DE PROVENCE

Les Domaniers are wines from “Ott Selection”, a newly formed group from Domaines Ott. Les Domaniers wines are produced from the oldest vines and most noble varietals, using traditional vinification methods. The wines are always bottled on the estate to ensure the finest quality.

KEY POINTS

1. The wines of Domaines Ott are selected from venerable age-old vines, using traditional vinification methods and always bottled at the Estate.
2. The winemaking team carefully selects the grape lots and produce wines they consider to be worthy and of excellent value for wines from the Côtes de Provence.
3. The wines of Les Domaniers offer the prestige of a unique bottle and a quality label bearing the signature of Ott.
4. These wines are perfectly made to match the Provençal cuisine.

GRAPE VARIETALS

- Grenache to round off the wine and give it body, strength and bouquet.
- Cinsault for its finesse, fullness and silky elegance.
- Syrah in small quantities to give the wine color and a touch of licorice.
