The Royal Oyster is fermented at low temperatures and then matured on lees in vats until bottled in the following April.

Tasting Notes

A fine and expressive bouquet full of white flowers and citrus fruit including lime and grapefruit aromas. The bouquet develops notes of white fleshed fruit (pêche de vigne). This wine has a beautiful fresh attack and a beautiful evolution of vivacity and lovely minerality. The finish is aromatic and full of citrus fruit.

Food Pairing

As the name suggests, this wine is a fantastic complement to oysters and shellfish.
