

DOMAINES

Ott[★]

FIND DOMAINÈS OTT* IN:

The Devil Wears Prada 2

one of the year's most anticipated theatrical releases.

- * Rosé featured in key scene with Meryl Streep and Anne Hathaway
- * Full bottle visible on screen for 1 + minute
- * Played across 4,200 theaters
- * Opened at #1 at the box office domestically
- * $234M worldwide and $77M North America on opening weekend

Tracing its roots back to 1896, Domaines Ott* wines represent the best of Provence: beauty, heritage, and unsurpassed character. Today, fourth-generation winemaker Jean-François Ott manages the three estates, totaling over 500 acres of vineyards, to produce wines of two appellations: Côtes de Provence and Bandol.

Gentle, sustainable, organic winegrowing and winemaking practices have always been utilized on the estates. In keeping with an ethos based on craftsmanship and a bespoke approach, the family uses biodynamic-inspired practices that go well beyond the requirements of the specifications in force—a nod to founder Marcel Ott's enduring legacy.

 MAISONS MARQUES & DOMAINES

Represented by Maisons Marques & Domaines | @mmdusa